Congressman Dent statement on terror arrests: cites need for vigilance against terrorism in the U.S.

U.S. Rep. Charlie Dent (PA-15), a member of the House Homeland Security Committee, made the following statement in response to the FBI's arrest of seven terror suspects allegedly plotting attacks in Chicago and Miami:

"This morning's news that possible multiple terror attacks had been planned in the United States reminds us that terrorism remains a real threat. It should also remind us that the war on terror is not about one man, one organization or one country. We are called to be vigilant, persistent and creative in our defense against terrorism if we are to prevent the loss of innocent lives at the hands of a violent few."
